Palm Springs, Ca -- 8/24/11- "Uronimo Announces the World's First Mobile Social Network with its Charity Partner, The North American Andy Transplant Foundation"

URONIMO, the first mobile social network & The North American Andy Transplant Foundation, Inc. (a 501(c)3 non profit organization) will have an official press conference in Hollywood, Ca. with it's hosting partner, 3D Film Festival during Sept. 22 – 25, 2011. The 3D Film Festival is the World's first and largest film and music festival over 4 days with 40 events in the city blocks district of Sunset and Vine. (www.3dff.org)

Hollywood has used its strength to promote philanthropy in its communities and around the world. The NAATF aspires to maximize and recognize the changes needed in today's world and has partnered with the 3D Film Festival. Its new flagship to be, Mother Teresa's website, www.andytransplantfoundation.org.MT EXCLUSIVELY BRANDED for URONIMO.org in celebration of her 100th Birthday will participate in a "love sees no diversity & embraces all" screening and concert benefit. The NAATF will also raise funds with Save the Music, a fundraiser to buy music equipment to benefit the Hollywood High School Students.

Uronimo.org is the next social mobile platform (The first mobile social network that will stream all 40 events) Charities can start to log on for FREE and start to make money for their non-profits by sending out SMS and MMS messages with no applications anymore. The best part is that they can build their own database of phone numbers and keep in touch with all of their customers via any mobile phone throughout the world. Companies can donate to the charity and non-profits can use these green credits to get started to make money for their causes.

This event will be televised by Uronimo's network and other media including "The Susan Thompson Show" as seen on CNN's queue Jan. 2011 with CNN'S Hero's and other media. Details of this spectacular venue will announce a message, key players, guest artists and dignitaries, upcoming events and other humanitarian efforts and activities. Producers, media and initiatives are in place regarding charity fundraising and empowerment including a VIP contest with Uronimo.org.

Celebrities, Models, Sport Athletes, Musicians, Distinguished Authors, Renowned Master Chefs, Famous Writers, Politicians & more are now invited to participate in this popularity venue to become "Starlight Ambassadors".
