BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA, JANUARY 2016

In celebration of Roger Neal Style Hollywood's 20th Anniversary, and participating with Roger Neal for the past 3 years, The North American Andy Transplant Foundation will be honored as one of the official charities at the 88th Academy Awards Viewing Dinner. This is a private dinner that is being held in Hollywood, Ca. and will have over 100 stars. Additional venues are on its way in Southern California with Andy's 1st "Walk for Life".

Stepping up to support the charity with a "Walk for Life" on Feb. 06, 2016 in one of the largest malls in Southern California is Eugene Mandelcorn, Advisor with Andy's Global Charity. Eugene will create awareness and educate others on Saturday, February 6th, 2016 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Ontario Mills Mall, 1 Mills Circle, Ontario, CA. He and his volunteers will also be passing out the charity's gold ribbon to pass the world on to others. Eugene plans to organize and E-Bike World Tour to support prevention, diagnosis, treatment and a future cure for pancreatic cancer in 2018. It will take him approximately a year go around the world.

Eugene is doing the E-Bike World Tour in memory of his sister who passed away from pancreatic cancer. Michael Landon, Patrick Swayze and Steve Jobs are among those who have succumbed to Pancreatic Cancer.

The North American Andy Transplant Foundation, Inc., (Andy's Global Charity (AGC)) a non-profit 501-(c)-3 public charity in its 12th year has a newly Board Member, Georges Leclere for the 2016-2017 Board Year (Executive Board) as VP of Innovation and Green Matters. He is to be congratulated on supporting such a worthy cause.

Andy's Global charity participated at the Dubai Film Festival in Dec 2015 with LVH Media and Yone Arts International Foundation, www.yonearts.org, (a charity that supports orphan children with computers and learning computer technology). Philanthropy continues to grow with an extended list of entertainment icons and celebrities attending and following Andy's Global Charity.
