The North American Andy Transplant Foundation, Inc., (Andy's Global Charity (AGC)) a non-profit 501(c)3 public charity in its 12th year was delighted to be participating at the Dubai Film Festival with LVH Media and Yone Arts International Foundation, www.yonearts.org. Founder, Lady Susan Thompson of Andy's Global Charity represented both charities at the Dubai Film Festival and was also received very well as Press & as an International TV Personality for The Susan Thompson Show. The Dubai Film Festival is now considered the leading industry platform in the entertainment industry and the gateway to the one of the fastest growing film and TV markets in the world. Philanthropy continues to grow with an extended list of entertainment icons and celebrities attending.

Yone Arts International, (yonearts.org) joined Andy Transplant Foundation in Dubai with LVH Media. Their mission is to promote cultural exchange between Myanmar and the rest of the world through art, education and entrepreneurship in order to preserve and enrich local culture and the global community. On Saturday, 17th of October, at the House of Memories in Yangon in Asia they celebrated the uplifting launch week of Virtual World School Myanmar's Early Start Program for these underprivileged children. They also premiered a video of their pilot group of teachers and children in an orphanage in Bago.

Thompson passed along Gold Ribbons from her charity and yonearts.org to promote their next event at Roger Neal Style Hollywood's OSCAR 20th Anniversary. OSN, The Sundance Channel and Make Up Forever promoted the gold ribbons for the charity. Thompson was very proud to have another charity sponsor their charity supporting orphan children in need.

In celebration of Roger Neal Style Hollywood's 20th Anniversary, all sponsors will be heading on stage to honor theandytransplantfoundation.org as one of the official charities.

Contact them for more information on becoming a Sponsor at the 88th Academy Awards Viewing Dinner and Couture Suite.
